

SEMINAR REPORT

Day 1 of the Seminar

St. Paul Teachers' Training College Birsinghpur had organized two days National Seminar on 05th and 06th April 2023 on the topic "Educational Transformation Crisis Resilience and Opportunities".

Chief patron of the Seminar was Honorable Vice Chancellor LNMU Prof. Surendra Pratap Singh and Dr. Mushtaq Ahmad Registrar of LNMU, Patron Mr. Avinash Kumar Secretary of SPTTC, Coordinator Dr. Roli Dwivedi , Convener Mrs. Arpana Kumari .

The programme was started with the lamp lighting from our guests. Our students sang welcome songs and our chairman Shree Umacharan Singh delivered welcome speech.

Seminar Topic briefing was done by Mrs. Arpana Kumari , Asst.Prof. along with all sub-themes included .

On the First day of the inaugural Session, our chief patron Honorable Vice Chancellor LNMU had given speech on the topic and he mentioned about challenges in higher education also he appreciated our organizing committee for choosing this topic. He talked about changes which are taking place in our education system and challenges and opportunities lies ahead.

The Registrar Dr. Mushtaq Ahmad focused on changes which NEP-2020 brought , as per him “ Changes is the rule of nature ” thus we all should accept the change.

On first day of the seminar our Key Note speaker Dr. Kaushal Kishore ,HOD Teacher Education , Central University South Bihar, Gaya ,talked about on what circumstances lead to NEP 2020. He also talked about COVID pandemic which taught us the use of technology in education. The NEP will provide opportunities along with the problems.

Prof. Md. Faiz Ahmad, Principal, College of Teachers Education, MANUU Darbhanga , focused on how Indian use to be the Viswa Guru in past , as per him NEP has remind us how we will attain the same position in coming days and will be called the Vishwa Guru again.

Dr. Roli Dwivedi , Principal, St. Paul Teachers' Training College Birsinghpur did the vote of thanks.

After vote of thanks Technical session was started in which participants presented paper as per their topic.

On the second day of the seminar lamp lighting was done by esteemed guests.
Welcome song was sang by the students of the college.

Welcome speech was delivered by the Principal of our college.

On the second day, Our key note Speaker Prof. Khagendra Kumar, Dean of Faculty Education , Patna University talked about New Education Policy 2020 , he minutely discussed on all important features of it.

Mr. Ranjeet Nirguni , Member of UNICEF Trainer, discussed about duties of good citizen and role of teacher in contemporary world.

Dr. M.A.Khan, HOD of Education,LNMU discussed about teacher education and way to improve skills and strategies in teaching.

Dr. M.A.Hasmi, Professor, Dr.ZHTT college, Darbhanga focused on use of technology and need to Techno-pedagogical teacher.

Dr. Bholu Chaurasia, Former DSW , LNMU discussed about journey of Indian Education System from Gurukul system to Online learning.

Technical session Day 2 started in which participants presented their paper as per their topic.

After Technical session of the Day2, Valedictory session started where in Dr. Vinay Choudhary, Member of Legislative Assembly discussed about how society changed from our time. He also spoke that a good teacher should also be a good citizen of the country.

Dr. Upendra Kumar, HOD of RSPC, Jharia had summarize the last two days discussion. He concluded the entire seminar and positives which we received.

Dr. Roli Dwivedi principal of our college ,congratulated entire team of SPTTCB for successfully hoisting the seminar.

At last, our Senior Faculty Asst. Prof. Manoj Kumar concluded the programme by giving vote of thanks to our guest.

