

FACULTY ENRICHMENT PROGRAMME REPORT

Day 1 of the FEP

St. Paul Teachers' Training College Birsinghpur had organized three days Faculty Enrichment Programme from 1st July to 3rd July 2023 on the Theme "Professional skill Enrichment for Teacher".

Chief patron of the FEP was Shree Umacharan Singh Chairman SPTTC and Mr. Avinash Kumar Secretary of SPTTC and Dr. Roli Dwivedi Principal of the college. The resource person for FEP were Dr. Prof. Lalit Kumar former dean of Patna University, Dr. Prof. Rakesh Kumar, former Principal CTE Bhagalpur and Smt. Mausami Kumari, Asst. Prof CTE, Samastipur

The programme started with lamp lighting from all guests and they were honored with Mithila tradition.

The welcome speech delivered by Dr. A.P.Singh HOD

Dr. Prof Lalit Kumar presented theme in which he discussed about making Action Research Proposal. He also discussed on making Hypothesis and Objective concerning problems. After lunch he made presentation on effective presentation in which he also shared component and barrier of effective communication.

Dr. Prof Rakesh Kumar took questions from participants.

Day-2 started with Dr Rakesh Kumar discussed on NEP 2020 and Teachers Education. Discussion happened on minutest details of NEP2020 and its repercussion on school education system. He also discussed about impact of NEP2020 on Teachers Education.

Smt. Moushami Kumari gave presentation on Innovative Pedagogy. She emphasized on Innovative Teaching skill technique and need to be innovative in day to day teaching.

In technical session she conducted two activity on co operational and co relational teaching.

Day 3 had feedback session in which Dr. Lalit Kumar took feedback on all previous session and gave presentation on evaluation on Teaching Learning Process. He also spoke on utility and classification of evaluation. He cleared confusion on the concept of Assessment Measurement and Evaluation.

After Lunch In valedictory session he shared his life experience. He also distributed certificates to all participants.

Dr. Roli Dwivedi, Principal gave vote of thanks.