REPORT ON IN-HOUSE DISCUSSION ON RECENT POLICIES & REGULATIONS

Transformation is also known as reform. It is a sign of progress. The same is true with India's educational system. It is gradually and slowly reforming.

In the last decade, India's educational system seen significant modification. Blended learning, online classrooms and experiential learning have all revolutionized the way students interact with educational content. The new Education Policy 2020 has made particular policy input to ensure that online education is part of country's overall educational efforts.

Objectives:

1. To make everyone aware about changes and new development in education system.
2. To make faculty aware about policies and regulations.
3. To prepare students as per the need and changes in the system
4. To make Institute ready for changes in system.
- 5.

Nature of Activities

The rapid changes and increased complexity of today's world present new challenges and put new demand on our education system. Thus, it is imperative that we need to put all efforts to make our system updated. The different policies which have been discussed in past are as given below.
